* Revised Data from the submission of the Agency

^{a/} Actual data as of December 2015, or most recent available data. May not necessarily be year-end values

^{b/} May either be the cumulative or incremental target value at the end of the Plan period

^{c/} Agency accountable for delivering the outputs/achievement of outcomes

^{d/} Lead agency responsible for reporting progress on indicator targets

^{e/} The World Governance Indicator – Rule of Law indicator captures perceptions of the extent to which agents have confidence in and abide by the rules of society, and in particular the quality of contract enforcement, property rights, the police, and the courts, as well as the likelihood of crime and violence.

^{f/} The WJP Rule of Law Index: Fundamental Rights indicator measures the protection of fundamental human rights, including effective enforcement of laws that ensure equal protection, the right to life and security of the person, due process of law and the rights of the accused, freedom of opinion and expression, freedom of belief and religion, the right to privacy, freedom of assembly and association, and fundamental labor rights, including the right to collective bargaining, the prohibition of forced and child labor, and the elimination of discrimination.

^{g/} The WJP Rule of Law Index: Civil Justice indicator measures whether civil justice systems are accessible and affordable, free of discrimination, corruption, and improper influence by public officials. It examines whether court proceedings are conducted without unreasonable delays, and if decisions are enforced effectively. It also measures the accessibility, impartiality, and effectiveness of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms.

^{h/} The WJP Rule of Law Index: Criminal Justice indicator measures whether the criminal investigation, adjudication, and correctional systems are effective, and whether the criminal justice system is impartial, free of corruption, free of improper influence, and protective of due process and the rights of the accused.
