

LABOR TURNOVER STATISTICS

4th Quarter 2016

Labor Turnover by Sector

The services sector posted the highest employment gain in the fourth quarter of 2016 with labor turnover rate of 3.58 percent. This means that 36 workers for every 1,000 employed were added to its workforce.

Labor turnover in the National Capital Region remained positive at 3.36% for the period, implying additional 34 workers to the workforce for every 1,000 employed.

Around 111 workers per 1,000 employed were hired by the enterprise due to expansion or replacement.

During the period, about 78 workers per 1,000 employed were separated from their jobs.