

PRESS RELEASE

90M Filipinos now registered to the National ID system

Date of Release: 20 September 2024

Reference No. 2024-294

The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) achieved another milestone in the National ID program by reaching 90 million registrations.

As of 19 September 2024, a total of 90,017,565 Filipinos are already registered. This is 97.8% percent of the 92 million target registrations this year.

"This milestone gives the PSA an impetus to continue fulfilling its mandate to register every Filipino in the National ID system," said PSA Undersecretary Claire Dennis S. Mapa, PhD, National Statistician and Civil Registrar General. "As we reach the last mile of registration, we will continue our pursuit to make National ID registration easy and accessible for all and make the National ID the top-of-mind valid proof of identity for Filipinos."

Provincial Statistical Office (PSO) Samar personnel wear colorful hats while assisting children in their registration to the National ID during a Rehistro Bulilit activity.

As part of the intensified efforts to register children ages 1 to 4 years, the PSA launched the Rehistro Bulilit campaign. The campaign utilized mascots, colorful banners and tokens, and playing of children's videos to help children feel at ease while registering to the National ID system.

Similar efforts were done for the students of Lambao Daycare Center in Barangay Lambao in the municipality of Santa Margarita.

PSO Pangasinan personnel register a senior citizen during a house-to-house registration activity.

In Pangasinan, the PSA conducted house-to-house registration in Barangay Domalandan Center, Lingayen. Here, they were able to register residents, including a bed-ridden, 99-year-old resident.

Senior citizens were also registered during a similar registration activity in Sumisip, Basilan.

Mobile registration was also conducted in Geographically-Isolated and Disadvantaged Areas (GIDAs). In Guimaras, PSA traveled by boat through the waters of the Panay Gulf to reach the island barangay of Guiwanon in Nueva Valencia.

PSO Guimaras personnel alight a boat carrying a registration kit to provide National ID registration to residents of Barangay Guiwanon in Nueva Valencia.

Through the activity, residents of the said barangay were able to conveniently register to the National ID system.

The PSA also partnered with various institutions to make National ID services such as registration, convenient and accessible. At the House of Representatives in Batasan Hills, Quezon City, officials and staff were able to register to the National ID system and seek assistance on other National ID-related concerns without leaving their work premises.

The PSA set up mobile registration at the House of Representatives on 16 September 2024. Other National ID services such as updating of demographic information and assistance in accessing Digital National ID were also extended to House of Representatives employees.

Meanwhile, walk-ins with supporting documents (<https://philsys.gov.ph/supporting-documents/>) remain welcome to register to the National ID system at any registration center (<https://philsys.gov.ph/registration-center/>).
