

PHILIPPINE LABOR INDEX ACTION PLAN

Activity	Timeline
1. NSCB Approval of the Philippine Labor Index as Official Statistics	November 2006
2. Preparation of the 2001-2005 Decent Work Status Report based on the PLI Indicators (core indicators of decent work) and non-core indicators <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Writeshop ➤ Release of Decent Work Status Report 	15-17 November 2006 March 2007 and every fourth quarter of succeeding years
3. MOU Signing with Data-Source Agencies regarding PLI indicators and other indicators of decent work	February 2007
4. PLI and the DOLE Strategic Framework <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Use of indicators of decent work particularly PLI indicators as outcome indicators of the DOLE Strategic Workforce Plan 	January 2008
5. Conduct of four regional advocacy activities on the PLI	4 th quarter 2007
6. Annual release of PLI Statistics including metadata (as a separate chapter) in the BLES Yearbook of Labor Statistics	2007 issue and every issue thereafter
7. Conduct of periodic review of statistical indicators comprising the PLI and its methodology, including the benchmarks set for each component indicator	2008 and every three years thereafter
8. Presentation of the proposed modifications on the PLI methodology, statistical indicators, and benchmarks to the NSCB Executive Board	As necessary