

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY SECTOR – Batch 2

---

Note: Metadata for the statistical concepts for the information and communications technology sector, which are defined below, are provided in Annex BR-21-20091111-01b.

1. Student-to-computer ratio - The number of pupils/students per computer in public and private primary and secondary schools
2. Proportion of ICT-qualified teachers in primary and secondary schools – The number of teachers in public and private primary and secondary schools who have received ICT training as a percentage of the total number of teachers at these levels of education
3. Mobile cellular telephone subscribers - Users of portable telephones subscribing to a public mobile telecommunication service using cellular technology
4. Proportion of population covered by mobile cellular network – Population covered by mobile cellular network signal as a percentage of the total population
5. Proportion of municipalities/cities covered by mobile cellular network – The number of municipalities/cities covered by mobile cellular network signal as a percentage of the total number of municipalities/cities
6. Mobile commerce (m-Commerce) - Transactions that take place over mobile networks where the buyer and seller are remote from each other
7. E-government - The use of new information and communication technologies by governments as applied to government functions
8. Open source software - Computer software that makes the source code available under terms that allow for modification and redistribution without having to pay the original author